

WORKSHOP LIST JUNE 2016 - MAY 2017

Three workshops are included in the cost of your residency. You may purchase extra workshops, beyond the three included, at the rate listed on your contract. Workshops last approximately 45 minutes. We prefer to do workshops on Tuesday, Wednesday and/or Thursday. Due to our continued dedication to quality educational projects, the maximum number of participants will be strictly enforced.

TITLE	DESCRIPTION	GRADE LEVEL	MAXIMUM # OF PARTICIPANTS
Acting	The basic tools of an actor's trade - observation, memorization, concentration, and imagination are presented and explored in an entertaining manner. The students participate in a variety of fun exercises, learning to apply the actor's tools to both performing and everyday life.	June-Aug: 1-12 Sept-May: K-12 Workshops are most effective when limiting the age range of the participants to three or four grade levels within a particular session (i.e. K-2, 3-5, 6-8 and 9-12).	60 We ask that one representative from your organization be available during the workshop.
Improv	Participation and teamwork are emphasized as the students learn to act without a script. This workshop can be geared to all skill levels of students from beginners to more experienced performers.
Creating a Character	When preparing for a role actors have to research how their character talks, moves and even thinks! Students will be introduced how to get into the mind of their own, crafted characters through a series of engaging and challenging activities that will help them to become someone else.
Let's Makeup	Makeup is the foundation and the most basic visual image for all performers. This workshop teaches students of all ages by demonstrating (on a few participants) corrective, character and special effects makeup for the theatre. Please note, this workshop is specific to theatre makeup techniques and is not a "face painting" experience.
Take 5!	How long does it take to tap into the fun of theatre? Incorporating innovative exercises and theatre games, this workshop will prove that it can be accomplished in 5 minutes or less. This is a hands-on, fun-filled workshop designed as a guide to subtlety and effortlessly incorporate theatre into your teaching routines.	Adult Educators	60
Tall Tales from Humble Heroes	Johnny Appleseed, Pecos Bill, Paul Bunion and babe the Blue Ox - famous names from some of the tallest tales. However there are even more legends to explore and enjoy! Join us as we spin a yarn about some of the humbler heroes from North American history. From the mighty swings of John Henry and the bravery and daring of Molly Pitcher and Kate Shelly, to big Canadian legend of Joe Mufferaw - these accounts will enthrall young and old as they delight in their exaggerations as well as discover the truth behind these tall tales. Note: The fee for this workshop is equivalent to 3 workshops	June-Aug: 1-6 Sept-May: K-6 Grade level adjustments for this workshop can be made to accommodate special circumstances. Please contact the Tour Marketing Office in advance.	600 (Assembly/ Performance Style)

For 2016-2017 we are presenting workshops that can accommodate all grades at the participation limit of 60 students. We have switched to this format in hopes that it will ease the challenge of scheduling workshops in your community. While there are fewer workshop offerings than in previous years, we hope that these changes will allow more students in your community to enjoy our workshop program.
