

TODAY'S EVENT HAS BEEN POSTPONED OR CANCELED

In response to the COVID-19 recommendations of the State of Kentucky, following the National CDC COVID-19 guidelines, and under the direction of the Hardin County Schools Board of Education, the Hardin County Schools Performing Arts Center (The PAC) is taking the following actions immediately:

- All Events scheduled at the PAC are in the process of being postponed or canceled.

Event coordinators and ticket holders will be contacted as needed.

The PAC will continue to monitor the situation closely and will act accordingly. During this time, the PAC staff is assisting Hardin County Schools in their efforts to help feed our elderly, creating social media content to bring the community together, and attending to facility operations, repairs and improvements. We look forward to resuming normal operations that bring people together for entertainment and education as soon as possible.

For questions related to Events and Tickets, please contact the PAC at 270.769.8837 or info@thepac.net.

Please check our website and social media platforms for developing news and entertainment options to help us all get through this challenging time.
