NAME: Amy Searl
SCHOOL:
Home Schooled

WHAT HAVE YOU SEEN AT THE PAC?

Music Man, Fiddler on the Roof and Cinderella ballet.

WHAT DID YOU LEARN FROM WATCHING A LIVE PERFORMANCE?

Live performances allow us to become much more involved in the story and emotions of the characters.

HOW HAS SEEING LIVE PERFORMANCES CHANGED YOU?

Seeing real people on a real stage really inspired me to act and play.

WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN INVOLVED IN AT THE PAC?

The Music and Arts Center's recitals and Youth Orchestra concerts.

WHAT DID YOU LEARN FROM YOUR PERFORMING EXPERIENCE?

Performance is a gift to the community. I love giving through my musical and acting abilities.

HOW HAS PERFORMING BEFORE AN AUDIENCE CHANGED YOU?

I am more confident in my ability both as a musician and as an actress.

WHY IS THE PAC IMPORTANT TO YOU?

Performing arts are very good for a community, both for those who perform and those who watch. The PAC is one of the only places in our area where the arts are performed.
