

pac Kids Spotlight

Name: Rachel Ruehling

School: Central Hardin High School

WHAT HAVE YOU SEEN AT THE PAC? "Little Shop of Horrors," "Grease," The Pirates of Penzance," and numerous choir and dance performances.

WHAT DID YOU LEARN FROM IT? I have become more aware of different theatrical styles and how a group can work as one.

HOW HAS IT CHANGED YOU? It has deepened my appreciation and interest for the arts and made me become more involved.

WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN INVOLVED IN AT THE PAC? "Annie Jr.," "Hello Dolly," "Guys & Dolls," "Joseph...," "Music Man, Jr.," "Cinderella," and "Getting to Know...The King & I."

WHAT DID YOU LEARN FROM YOUR EXPERIENCE? I have learned that with hard work, dedication and giving up many free days, performing on stage in front of an audience is worth it all.

HOW HAS IT CHANGED YOU? It has opened my eyes to more experiences around me. I've seen Broadway produced shows, found lasting friendships with cast members, and I've become a more outgoing person.

WHY IS THE PAC IMPORTANT TO YOU? For our community the PAC is amazing! Varieties of shows and events come through the county each month and the PAC is the ideal spot to showcase them.
