Kids Spotlight

Name: Blake Ryan

School: John Hardin High School

WHAT HAVE YOU SEEN AT THE PAC?

What have I not seen?! Because my mom heads up HCEC TV, I have spent a lot of time around the performing arts. When I was 8 years old, she even had me at a video camera taping "The Nutcracker." I've seen dance recitals, school shows, community shows, professional shows and orchestral shows.

WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN INVOLVED IN AT THE PAC?

I perform at the PAC with Allegro dance and have been in the PAC Community Theatre productions of Thoroughly Modern Millie and Fiddler on the Roof. I have also done several shows with Youth Theatre of Hardin County: Guys & Dolls, Cinderella, Seussical, Crazy for You and currently Beauty and the Beast.

HOW HAS PERFORMING BEFORE AN AUDIENCE CHANGED YOU?

I am more outgoing and open as a person around other people. I could sing, act or dance almost anywhere without fear. I am able to be calm and not care what people think about me. "If you don't like the way I look, don't look at me."

WHY IS THE PAC IMPORTANT TO YOU?

It involves people throughout the community. Both old and young can be watching a person be something they usually are not or performing as a person they usually are not.
