A SYNOPSIS

ACT I ~ Prologue

The story opens in the mid nineteenth century. It is Christmas Eve and the Von Stahlbaums and their children, Clara and Fritz, have invited many of their friends and neighbors to a party. All of the children play and dance, and although it is past their bedtimes they are allowed to stay until Herr Drosselmeyer arrives. He is Clara's mysterious Godfather who always brings unusual gifts. After making dolls come to life and dance, he gives Clara a special gift, a Nutcracker. Everyone enjoys her fun with the Nutcracker except her jealous brother Fritz. Grabbing it, he throws it to the ground and breaks it. Clara's Godfather mends it, and after a final dance, all the guests say goodbye.

Later that night while everyone is asleep, Clara sneaks back downstairs to make sure her Nutcracker is safe and falls asleep. While sleeping, mice and rats appear and Clara's Nutcracker becomes life-size. He leads the Toy Soldiers in a battle against the Mice. When the Rat King is about to defeat the Nutcracker, Clara distracts him by throwing her slipper. The Nutcracker is saved and turns into a handsome Prince.

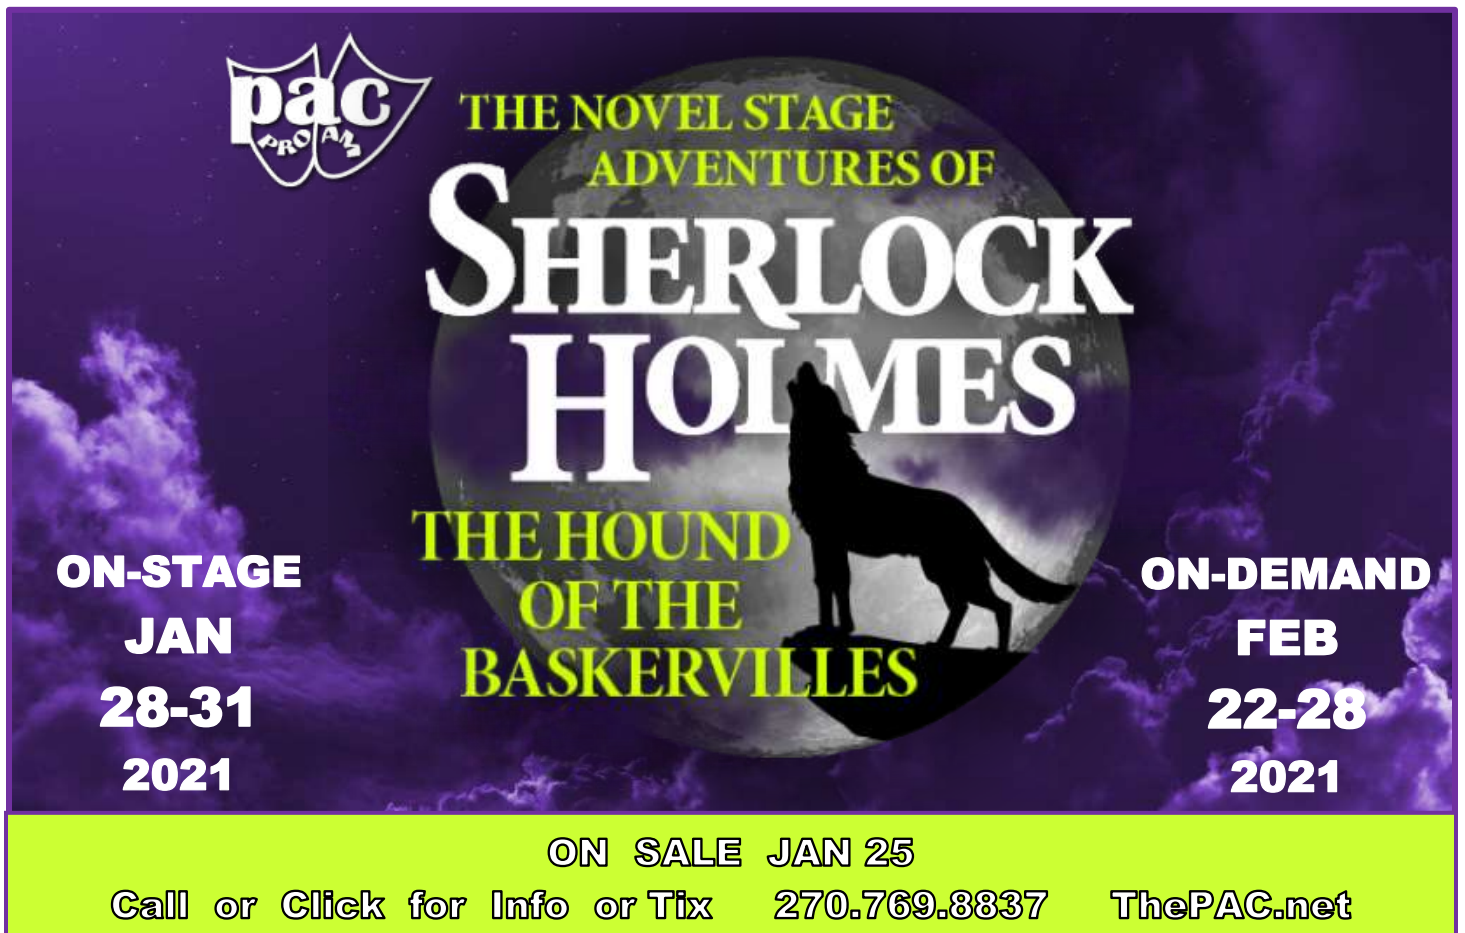

Grateful to Clara for saving his life, the Prince leads her through the Land of Snow, where they meet the Snow Queen, her Snowflakes, the Frost Maidens, and the Ice Fairy.

~~~~~ INTERMISSION ~~~~~

ACT II ~ The Land of the Sugar Plum Fairy

Clara is led to a throne that has been prepared especially for her. Cooks bring her delicious cakes and candies while troupes of dancers from distant lands entertain her. There is a lively Spanish dance representing chocolate, a slow Arabian dance symbolizing coffee, a dance representing tea from China, and a vigorous Russian Tropak representing the Ukraine. Mirlitons dance with their reed pipes and the Pulchinelas and Candy Canes amuse Clara with their antics. Next, bouquets of beautiful flowers Waltz to honor Clara, and the Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier crown the festivities with the Grand Pas De Deux.

To bid farewell to their little guest, each group of dancers returns for a last goodbye, for all dreams must come to an end but, was it only a dream?

Many people have contributed countless volunteer hours to make this production successful. Our deepest thanks to our dancers, parents and friends who give so much of themselves – we simply would not be here without you.

Shirley Frances Ramsey passed away Tuesday, Nov. 10, 2020. Shirley loved growing and arranging flowers. She was a fixture in the PAC lobby alongside her Sonora Florist cohorts for several seasons and numerous musicals and dance recitals. Her smiling face, delightful laughter and good-natured charm will be missed.

Help Bring Arts and Culture to those Isolated in Our Community.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The COVID-19 pandemic has had many unintended and lasting impacts on the arts community. At the Hardin County Schools Performing Arts Center (PAC), the pandemic has reduced show production and theater capacity. Loyal patrons like area retirement and nursing homes, have been forced to stay home and stay safe. In an effort to connect them to the arts, we are raising money to equip the PAC with recording equipment that will allow us to share our talents with those isolated due to the pandemic.

CONSIDER MAKING A DONATION TODAY!

GIVE270.ORG

A $100 tax-deductible gift provides one show to an area retirement and nursing home. Help us meet our goal of 150 shows.

BRINGING THE ARTS TO AREA SENIOR ADULTS

November 2020

Please consider supporting the HCS Performing Arts Center (PAC) and their efforts to bring theater performances to area senior adults.

The COVID-19 pandemic has had many unintended and lasting impacts on the arts community. While the pandemic has obviously reduced show production and theater capacity, the likelihood of a loyal group of attendees from area retirement and nursing homes returning remains unclear. The Hardin County Schools Performing Arts Center regularly had the opportunity to perform for these audiences when it was safe. Today, this isolated group is not able to join us. In an effort to connect them to the arts, we are raising money to equip the PAC with recording equipment that will also allow us to share our talents with the community and with those isolated due to the pandemic.
