

SPOTLIGHT

This month The PAC Spotlight shines on:

Meade County High School's Abigail Harper

What do you want to do when you grow up?

I want to get a degree in dance and arts administration to eventually own and teach at my own studio.

What have you seen at the PAC?

Kentucky Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, Allegro Dance Theatre's Peter Pan Jr. and Frozen Jr.

What have you participated in at the PAC?

9 years of Cinderella the Ballet along with Village Street, Coppelia, Heidi, Little Orphan Annie, Twelve Dancing Princesses, Sleeping Beauty, Glass Hearts, excerpts from Don Quixote and Raymonda, and Kentucky Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream.

What have been your most rewarding PAC experiences?

Going from being a performer on stage to a member of the audience to helping with tech, seeing shows from all angles is amazing.

What did you learn from your PAC experiences?

I learned that there are more people working behind the scenes than anyone would ever imagine. From lighting, music, even changing backdrops, it takes many people to coordinate a successful production.

How have you benefited from the PAC?

I believe that the PAC has played a very large role in shaping me into the person I am today, as it takes responsibility, maturity, and a hard work ethic to pull off a show.

Why is the PAC important to you?

The PAC has given me so many cherished moments in my young life. I am so grateful to be able to call it one of my favorite places to perform.

Why should the PAC be important to others?

It gives a way for the community to come together to appreciate the many different forms of art.
