A SYNOPSIS

ACT I ~ Prologue

The story opens in the mid-nineteenth century. It is Christmas Eve, and the Von Stahlbaums and their children, Clara and Fritz, have invited many friends and neighbors to a party. All the children play and dance, and although it is past their bedtime, they are allowed to stay until Herr Drosselmeyer arrives. He is Clara's mysterious Godfather who always brings unusual gifts. After making dolls come to life and dance, he gives Clara a special gift, a Nutcracker. Everyone enjoys her fun with the Nutcracker except her jealous brother Fritz. Grabbing it, he throws it to the ground and breaks it. Clara's Godfather mends it, and after a final dance, all the guests say goodbye.

Later that night, while everyone is asleep, Clara sneaks back downstairs to make sure her Nutcracker is safe and falls asleep. While sleeping, mice and rats appear, and Clara's Nutcracker becomes life-size. He leads the Toy Soldiers in a battle against the Mice. When the Rat King is about to defeat the Nutcracker, Clara distracts him by throwing her slipper. The Nutcracker is saved and turns into a handsome Prince.

Grateful to Clara for saving his life, the Prince leads her through the Land of Snow, where they meet the Snow Queen, her Snowflakes, the Frost Maidens, and the Ice Fairy.

~~~~~ INTERMISSION ~~~~~

ACT II ~ The Land of the Sugar Plum Fairy

Clara is led to a throne that has been prepared especially for her. Cooks bring her delicious cakes and candies while troupes of dancers from distant lands entertain her. There is a lively Spanish dance representing chocolate, a slow Arabian dance symbolizing coffee, a dance representing tea from China, and a vigorous Russian Tropak representing Ukraine. Mirlitons dance with their reed pipes, and the Pulchinellas and Candy Canes amuse Clara with their antics. Next, bouquets of beautiful flowers Waltz to honor Clara, and the Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier crown the festivities with the Grand Pas De Deux.

To bid farewell to their little guest, each group of dancers returns for a last goodbye, for all dreams must come to an end but, was it only a dream?

And now for something WILDER!

In Thornton Wilder's tragicomic allegory for the endurance of the human spirit, the Antrobus family survives hysterical and historical disasters of Biblical proportions!

THIS YEAR'S GUEST ARTISTS

Cris Cooper is a Louisville native and graduate of the Youth Performing Arts School, University of Louisville (BA in Humanities), and Spalding University (MS in Business Communications). Cris previously danced professionally with The Lexington Ballet, where he interpreted such roles as “Cavalier” in The Nutcracker and “Rinaldo” in the revival of Massine’s The Good Humoured Ladies. During his career, Cris also danced with numerous other companies and groups, including the University of Louisville Dance Theatre, Allegro Dance Theatre, Oklahoma Festival Ballet, Ballet Internationale, BalletMet, and The Nutmeg Ballet. Cris also has a background in magic and illusion, having started magic after receiving his first magic kit at the age of six. At the age of thirteen, Cris was one of four young magicians chosen annually to perform at the Society of American Magicians national convention. Former clients for Mr. Cooper’s illusion show include General Electric, The Galt House, The University of Louisville, The Louisville Police Officer’s Association, The Louisville Magic Club, and the New Albany-Floyd County Library.

Eric Glenn was born and raised in Houston, Texas, which is where he first found his passion for dance. He started his training with Dina Vail and then went on to Houston Ballet Academy. Eric danced on full scholarship, where he had the opportunity to work with Ben Stevenson, Claudio Munoz, Priscilla Murphy, and Clara Cravey. He also received training from Uptown Dance Centre, working under Beth Gulledge Brown and Keith Cross. This is where Eric was first exposed to modern and contemporary dance. Eric graduated in 2007 from the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts, where he trained with Luanne Carter and Janie Carothers. After high school, Eric attended the University of Oklahoma, where he graduated with his Bachelor of Fine Arts. At the University of Oklahoma, Eric received training from the entire dance faculty as long as guest artists like Helen Star, Violette Verdy, Howard Sayette, and others. Eric has had the pleasure to perform in ballets choreographed by Bronislava Nijinska, Miguel Terekhov, Ben Stevenson, Bruce Wells, Mary Margaret Holt, Steve Brule, and AlunJones. In addition, Eric was exposed to contemporary works choreographed by Robert Battle, Alvin Ailey, Darrel Grand Moultrie, Fritz Ludin, Derrick Minter, and Austin Hartel. After college, Eric started his dance career with Nevada Ballet Theatre and then went off to dance with Idaho Dance Theatre. Eric has also danced for Oklahoma Festival Ballet, Contemporary Dance Oklahoma, Off Centre Dance, Ballet Idaho, Osage Ballet, Kindwood Dance Theatre, and Uptown Dance Center. Eric is excited to dance with The Dance Centre of Elizabethtown for the 11th year in a row.

Adeline Wylie began dancing in Spring, Texas, at age thirteen after ten years of competitive gymnastics. She completely fell in love with dance after joining Uptown Dance Company II, where her technique and artistry developed and advanced. She trained in summer intensives at Ballet Austin, Texas Ballet Theater, and Alvin Ailey. She then trained in the Professional Division at Texas Ballet Theater, where she performed in numerous ballets by Ben Stevenson O.B.E., such as The Nutcracker and Cinderella. Ms. Wylie has also had the privilege of dancing in Lew Christensen’s Beauty And The Beast, as well as the U.S. premiere of Will Tuckett’s Pinocchio.
