

SPOTLIGHT

The September PAC Spotlight shines on:

East Hardin Middle School's Lucy Melloan

What do you want to do when you grow up?

I either want to be an attorney or an interior designer.

What have you seen at the PAC?

The Jungle Book, The Nutcracker, Beauty and the Beast, The Little Mermaid, dance recitals

What have you participated in at the PAC?

The Nutcracker, dance recitals, and The Secret Garden

What have been your most rewarding PAC experiences?

I've performed in The Nutcracker for several years now. From being on stage to seeing how everything works backstage, it's one of my favorite things to do each year.

What did you learn from your PAC experiences?

I used to have stage fright, but performing at the PAC helped me overcome that.

How have you benefited from the PAC?

I've developed as a performer and a dancer. I've also gotten to experience stage shows as an audience member that have helped develop my love for the theater.

Why is the PAC important to you?

I really like going to see plays and musicals at the PAC. It's also the first place I performed. I'm comfortable there, and I'm grateful we have such a nice facility and quality programs in our community.

Why should the PAC be important to others?

Not all communities have a PAC. Seeing shows on stage should be something every kid gets to experience. Also, the opportunities for kids to perform in PAC productions help develop the skills needed to continue working and participating in the arts as adults.
