

SPOTLIGHT

The JULY PAC Spotlight shines on:

Ithaca College's Madeline Curtis

What do you want to do when you grow up?

I plan on majoring in communications in college, I'm not sure what career I'll pursue but I want to be someone who brings people together.

What have you participated in at the PAC?

Matilda, Lawson School of Music recitals, The Secret Garden, Oklahoma!, Beauty and the Beast, The Little Mermaid, 1984, Arsenic and Old Lace, Addams Family, Hello Dolly!, Suessical, The Wizard of Oz, The Hobbit, Les Miserables.

What have been your most rewarding PAC experiences?

My most rewarding PAC experience has been doing Youth Theatre the last 6 years and getting to grow up around wonderful directors and actors, as well as being able to participate in such full-scale productions with every show I've done at the PAC.

What did you learn from your PAC experiences?

I have learned perseverance from working on a character for auditions and then working on whatever role I get until it is fully my own. I've learned how to be confident in myself through having to make my own strong choices.

How have you benefited from the PAC?

The PAC has given me the most amazing space to express myself, form close friendships, and learn everything I can about theatre from professionals and amateurs alike.

Why is the PAC important to you?

The PAC has felt like my second home since I was a kid because I've spent so much time at rehearsals and performing here. In addition to that, I've really gotten to know some of the people who work here and those who perform here and it is such a dedicated and welcoming community, one which I can rely on.

Why should the PAC be important to others?

Our community is so lucky to have a theatre as nice as the PAC because it gives students and adults the opportunity to do professional-level productions that many places are unable to do. Beyond that, there are many performances that take place here that community members can come and see to enjoy the performing arts live.
